FAIRMONT HIGH SCHOOL

DAYTON, OHIO

FAIRMONT'S SCRA

BOOK OF 1955

Loyal and True

Loyal and True we pledge allegiance to you.
This is our motto: "We are one for all,
And all for Fairmont High."
Here's to our School, and long and high may she rule.
For evermore you will find us,
Always Loyal and True.

Strike Up the Band

Strike up the band we pledge ourselves anew,
Purple and White for evermore be true.
Fairmont High we'll always loyal be,
And we'll fight for victory.
Our prayers shall ring across Ohio's hills,
Let every heart with pride and rapture fill,
As we hear the Dragons fighting cry,
Colors fly! Do or die! Fairmont High!

Battle Cry

Fight Dragons down the field,
We'll win for Fairmont tonight.
Drive 'till our rivals yield,
And then we won't give up the fight,
Rah, Rah, Rah.
Roll on to victory,
As we sound out battle cry.
Oh, we'll never give in,
For we're going to win,
For Fairmont High!

Board of Education

Mr. MacFarland, Mr. Moyer, Mr. Eickman, Mr. Ernst, Mr. Krebs.

The Board of Education members for the year 1954-1955 are: Chester A. Moyer, president; Gordon F. MacFarland, vice-president; George L. Ernst, clerk-treasurer; Willis E. Eickman and Robert M. Krebs. The greatest part of their work is the coping with the many details in the operation of seven elementary schools, Van Buren Junior High and Fairmont High School. They also worked very hard promoting the school bond levy bill. Since the successful passage of the bill, they have been working on the plans for the new, bigger and better, Fairmont High School.

Principal and Counselors

Richard R. Somers arrived at Fairmont March 4, 1929, as a commercial teacher. Later he became a guidance counselor and in September of 1949 assistant principal. He has been principal at Fairmont for three years now. During his years at Fairmont, Mr. Somers originated a mimeographed monthly DRAGON, a newspaper in magazine form which was continued over a period of years. Also in the journalistic field he and Miss Hartsock were co-sponsors of the yearbook for several years. Mr. Somers formed the first F. H. S. golf team in 1930. He was advisor of the Photography Club for three years and the Anglers Club for four years. He also was the head of the sophomore class for a number of years. His favorite hobby is photography, but he also enjoys fishing, and many of his summers are spent in Michigan with rod and reel in hand. Mr. Somers is a very familiar figure in and around Fairmont. His affable voice making the morning's announcements is one of the many things that Fairmont students will long remember.

Mr. Flatter, Kent Dadisman.

Howard Flatter is one of the busiest people at Fairmont. He is assistant principal, boys' counselor and also teaches part of the boys' personality adjustment classes. While working as assistant principal, he issues boys' tardy and readmission blanks and takes a personal interest in anyone who becomes seriously ill during the year. As boys' counselor, he advises the arranging of schedules and helps the seniors, especially, plan for the future. Mr. Flatter is particularly interested in the basic psychology courses given as a part of the personality adjustment classes, but his first love is the chemistry department, which he had to leave two years ago when he took over the duties of assistant principal. He also does a great deal of work for public relations through public speaking in and around Kettering.

Phyllis Smart, Mrs. Githens.

Mary Ann Githens has been a member of the Fairmont faculty only two years, but in that short time she has acquired many duties. She is counselor for the girls and she also teaches a section of the girls' personality adjustment classes. She is the advisor of the Junior Achievement Club which she inaugurated this year, and she took over the sponsorship of the Future Teachers for Miss Warren, who is exchange teaching in France this year. As the girls' counselor, her office is never empty; there are always tardy blanks to issue, college applications to be filled out, and advice being sought by underclassmen. Yet she is never too occupied to beam her familiar smile at anyone entering her door.

The Class of 1955

As we the class of '55 look back upon that September morning three years ago when our first eager steps were directed toward Fairmont High School, many fond memories begin to unfold.

Our first chance to display many talents was the sophomore assembly, "Stand In For Juliet," under the able direction of Bill Bass. "Island of Intrigue" was truly enjoyed by the students as the sophomores worked hard to make this first dance a success.

As our junior year dawned, responsibilities were gradually and continually growing. In addition to the wonderful dance, "Sweetheart Swing," and assembly, "Americans in Algiers," was the junior play, "Best Foot Forward," by J. Cecil Holm. This light-hearted comedy helped to finance the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held the last of May. The climax of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom. It was well worth the effort displayed by everyone. A grand time was had by all.

And now our last steps will echo through the halls of Fairmont as our senior year comes to a finale. Activities of our last year will linger in memories for years to come. Among the activities was our humorous comedy, "Pygmalion," by George Bernard Shaw. We shall remember our last dance, "Toyland Fantasy." School events come to end with "Record Rhapsody," our last contribution to Fairmont High School. These three years will never be forgotten. We leave this message to next year's students: "Good luck and farewell from the class of '55."

The Junior Class

The juniors began the year with a bang when they presented their annual dance, "Cupids Capers," held in the cafeteria on February 19, 1955, with Marshall Reed supplying the music. A dazzling array of fiery red hearts could be seen among Cupid and his bow and arrow floating through the air. The next great event was their junior play, "Charlie's Aunt" under the direction of Miss Funck. The leads in the play were John Goetcheus, Lee Tussing, Karen Corsaw and Pat Kinkade. It was held in the auditorium on March 25 and 26. For the last two and most important events of the year, the juniors were hosts to the seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet held on May 14 and the prom which was held on May 20. This was the first in the history of Fairmont that the prom was taken outside of the school. This was due to the large number of juniors and seniors. It was decided that it would be held at the Miami Hotel. Congratulations to the juniors for a successful year, and lots of luck to them as next year's seniors.

The Class of '57

On September 8, 1954, the halls were full of scared but excited sophomores. They received their schedules and wandered all over the building until they were rescued by some proud upper classmen.

Johnny Vorndran, a vivacious and handsome young gentleman, headed the largest class of sophomores that has ever attended Fairmont High School.

The sophomores didn't have a chance to show their talent until the popular "Block F" came into existence. This gave the class of '57 an opportunity to exhibit their loyalty. This was one thing of which the whole student body could be proud.

In the spring they put forth their biggest effort in entertaining the upper classmen. They could be seen putting up signs and lavish decorations for their annual spring dance.

At the end of the school year their heads were bubbling with new ideas getting ready for their picnic. This consisted of choosing a place to spend the day and saying good bye to the sophomores and saying hello to the new juniors. The graduating class of '55 wishes next year's juniors the best of luck.

The Annual Staff

Kent Dadisman, Dee Miltenberger, Diana Reed.

This year's annual staff, under the direction of their advisor, Miss McCallister, started work on the '55 Dragon early in September. Their first big decision for the '55 annual was made when they selected the idea of a scrapbook for the theme and to have the class ring emblems on the cover. The next problem was to sell advertisements to help finance the annual. Busy at this task was the business manager, Dee Miltenberger, with her assistant, Kent Dadisman.

The biggest job on the staff was that of the editor-in-chief, Diana Reed, who was busy all year gathering pictures and copy information.

Taking care of sports were Dottie Colburn, girls' athletics, assisted by Shirley Garrett; and Bill Pool, boys' athletics, assisted by Jack Brinkley.

STANDING: Sharon Meyers, Penny Joy, Mary Schwieterman, Gwen Cole, Paula Gay. SITTING: Bette Wheeler, Helen Jones.

The Dragon

Joy Shawhan, Frances Glover, Cindy DuMont, Sally Bohlender, Karla Wildason, Jack Brinkley, Shirley Garrett.

Seeing that photographs were taken of all important happenings at Fairmont were Penny Joy, Karla Wildason, and Joy Shawhan. The girls were kept jumping with all the events there are to be covered at our busy school.

Another big job was that of Charlotte Perry and Gwen Cole who were heads of the art department and saw that the cover and all sectional pages were drawn up.

Other jobs of importance were: Organizations — Pat Jollay, Helen Jones, Cindy DuMont, and Bette Wheeler; Seniors — Sharon Mish, Frances Glover; Special Events — Elaine Harmon, Mary Schwieterman; Classes — Sharon Harless, Sally Bohlender, Paula Gay, Sharon Meyers; and Faculty — Gwen Cole, Joy Shawhan.

Dragon Tales and Dragon Review

EDITORIAL STAFF: Standing: Cheri Dusseau, Joy Cook, Beverly Rensch, Bill Bass, Norman Roush. Seated: Pam Miller, Connie Faber, Linda Ekberg, Carol Hogue, Dick Sheldon.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Allen, the 1954-55 Dragon Tales newspaper staff had a successful year. The staff was divided into two groups this year, staff one and staff two. Each staff put out every other paper and then spent some time learning more about journalism. The Dragon Tales is a bi-monthly publication with news items of the happenings around school and elsewhere.

A literary magazine, the Dragon Review, published once a month, is also organized by this group. It contains material written by the students.

Fairmont's chapter of the National Honor Society began the new school year with their orientation program for all new members. In April new members, chosen by the faculty on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, were tapped in a special assembly.

Eight members were chosen this year for the Fairmont chapter of Quill and Scroll. In order to be selected, a student must be in the upper third of his class and must have done excellent work on either the DRAGON TALES or the DRAGON.

The 1955 Marching Band

DIRECTORS: Mr. Shartle, Mr. Ross, Mr. Haines, Mr. Thygerson.

A new attraction was added this year for the first time in the history of the Fairmont band. Sparkling Sandy Colwell, Fairmont's first drum major-ette, led the band through thick and thin.

Even with sixteen new members, the band performed beautifully at the first football game, as well as all through the season. With great precision and timing, the band played faithfully at every pep assembly, bonfire, and football game.

From the first upbeat to the last downbeat, the band has built up an excellent reputation, and there is no end to the opportunities for its members, such as playing a few numbers to entertain at the Knight Templar State Convention at the Masonic Temple and for the Teachers' State Convention held at the N.C.R.

The band's top money-making project, the Fall Festival, held after the Miamisburg game, was a big success. The proceeds were used for new uniforms for the band and rhythmettes.

Under the direction of Clark Haines, the band has upheld its reputation for being a first class organization.

And Rhythmette Corps

The Rhythmettes, under the direction of Ernie Ross and Cadet Captain Manja Moore, finished their fifth season of football programs, concerts, and outside shows. The top officers, who were first lieutenant, Linda Ekberg; second lieutenant, Sharon Meyers; and top sergeant, Evelyn Boyer, did a grand job in helping to direct the forty girl corps of 1954-1955.

Twenty-seven new members were added to the corps this year, and new uniforms were sported by everyone. Another new addition was the all white uniform worn by each of the top four officers.

The corps performed another outstanding show when they danced at the Masonic Temple for the Knight Templar convention.

As a result of hard work, added to the season's football programs this year were the baton twirling routines, well received by everyone.

The Rhythmettes made another grand performance with their dances and kick lines when they appeared in Fairmont's operetta, Carousel.

We salute the '54-'55 corps of Rhythmettes.

Chorus

This year's chorus has enjoyed singing as a group on many different occasions. In the fall they sang for the Knight Templar Convention at the Masonic Temple, the State P.T.A. Convention at N. C. R., the Dayton Dental Society and the Saratoma Club. They received a warm welcome from the students when they took part in the annual Christmas assembly.

The chorus took on a big responsibility when they decided on Carousel for their annual operetta, but as usual they came through and did an outstanding job. Leads in the operetta were Sally Holloway, Bob Miller, Wayne Appleman, Viola Raines, Gary Clark and Pat Lowles.

Of course the operetta, programs, contests and assemblies the chorus participated in couldn't have been possible without the capable direction of Mr. Haines.

Practice for the operetta

The Concert Band

and Orchestra

This year the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Hard, was for the first time in many years composed of all Fairmont students.

This was also the first year the orchestra gave an assembly for the students. Excellent individual and group performances were staged by the students. Besides the assembly, the orchestra has played for various other events, such as the junior and senior plays and the operetta.

The concert band is composed of 103 members and is under the direction of Clark Haines. The season this past year consisted of two concerts on February 12 and May 13. The concerts were held this year at Van Buren Junior High School because of the many people who attend. Both concerts were very successful.

Future Homemakers

The Future Homemakers of America had an after game party. During Christmas time they went caroling. Some of the girls took a trip to Columbus for a state convention. This group of girls under Miss Vogelsang has had interesting speakers and helpful discussions at their meetings this year.

Future Teachers

Future Teachers, under the new name of the Helen Hartsock Future Teacher's Club, has joined the national organization of future teachers. This club has charge of devotions for the second semester. They had a day for students to visit classes in different schools and their annual "College Beckons Night" with Mr. Gallico, Director of Admissions of University of Dayton.

Junior Council on World Affairs

Junior Council this year took their annual trip to New York, going through Washington, D. C. to visit the Capitol. Some of the members have made television appearances on news programs. They have had many interesting speakers at their meetings.

Junior Achievers of Fairmont

Junior Achievement made its first appearance into high school organizations. Its purpose is to discuss and learn more about business problems. They have had several speakers and some movies.

Photography Club

The Photography Club visited a photographic studio, had demonstrations on printing and developing, held a photo contest, and had a field trip for the purpose of taking out-door pictures.

Science Club

The Science Club spent the year with a main project of a trip through Armco Steel Company; they saw the glass furnaces and the rolling of steel. They took a tour through the pathology laboratory of Miami Valley Hospital. They had a chemical magic show given by director of research at Frigidaire. Projects and student demonstrations were both educational and interesting.

Junior Red Cross

The Fairmont chapter of the Junior Red Cross, with their advisor, Miss Urick, filled a fifth chest for needy people. Also they had many projects to raise money for their organization.

National Forensic League

The members of National Forensic League of Fairmont this year have upheld Fairmont's past records in receiving numerous top honors. This year N. F. L. has an active membership of forty-eight, nine of whom participate in debate. Other members participate in the individual events which consist of humor, dramatic, original oratory, oratorical declamation, and girls' and boys' extemporaneous speech.

OFFICERS: Ted McClanahan, President; Dotty Colburn, Vice-President; Lynn Boyles, Secretary; Bonnie Harry, Treasurer; Charles Maloney and Bob Colburn, Sargeants of Arms.

Allied Youth, the largest and fastest growing organization at Fairmont, boasts an all-time record of 260 members. Meetings were frequently held in the gymnasium where the students participated in square dancing and other various games.

One of the biggest successes at Fairmont and Allied Youth's main money-making project was the annual skating party held at Triangle Skateland.

In September the Senior Y-Teens had a tea for all new sophomore girls to introduce them to the club. In October, Y-Teens had a masquerade dance, "The Cat's Meow," open to the whole school. At one of their meetings, a Filipino woman spoke on her own country. During the Christmas season the girls collected clothes and food. These they sent to a school in Kentucky and also given to a family here in town. Also a tree was decorated in the library. At another meeting, Y-Teens had a panel discussion on juvenile delinquency. In February they had a film on prejudice called "The Toymaker." In March Y-Teens had their annual Mother-Daughter Banquet at the Wishing Well.

Junior Y-Teens started its year off with induction services for its new members. As a Christmas project the junior girls collected food and gifts for a needy family. During the Easter season gifts were given to handicapped persons. At one of their monthly meetings Mrs. Fargeix, our exchange teacher from France, told of her experiences in Indo-China, Madagascar, North Africa, and France. She also showed many interesting souvenirs of these places. At another meeting, a war bride from France, now living in Dayton, told of her childhood days in France. The following meeting, Miss Johnson, teen-age director of the Y.W.C.A., told about the work of the Y.W.C.A. During the Christmas season the girls had a Christmas party. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held at the Wishing Well on April 27. New officers were installed.

At "Mardi Gras Time," the Sophomore Y-Teens had a booth to make money. At their February meeting, a senior at Miami University spoke on personal habits and personality. In March, Pat Smiley modeled for the girls. For another money making project, the Y-Teens made book marks out of purple and white felt.

Gamma Hi-Y, with their advisor, Mr. Tuttle, made fire exit signs for each of the home rooms. A Thanksgiving basket was sent to help a needy family. Swimming is a popular function with them at the Y.M.C.A. Also, a Valentine Party was on their calendar for the year.

Delta Hi-Y, under the direction of Mr. Allen, sold the Fairmont directories this year. A Christmas tree was decorated and placed in the cafeteria. On January 22, Delta sponsored a dance with Lou Emm spinning the discs. In May their annual picnic was held.

Theta Hi-Y, with their director, Mr. Henderson, sponsored an activity bus to the Fairmont-Miamisburg basketball game. In addition to that the Hi-Y adopted a family for Christmas and sent a Care package to Europe. On the day of election, Theta had a "You Vote We Tote" campaign.

Kappa Hi-Y, under the direction of Mr. Jundanian, had a dance for the student body on February 18. A regular project of the club was their visit to different churches. At the end of the year, a picnic was given to bid the seniors farewell.

Sigma Hi-Y, under the supervision of Mr. Norris, held a Thanksgiving dance, "The Turkey Trot." Among their other activities was ushering for a Christmas program which was held at Fairmont for Kettering schools.

Available through the year for those students who are interested in foreign languages are three language clubs — French, Latin, and Spanish. Every club has its monthly meetings with its advisor, and special meetings are planned with parties and speakers. The main event of the year was the Mardi Gras attended by all three clubs.

The Spanish Club, with its advisor Miss Davis, had many interesting discussions about their language. The club held a Christmas Party at which the members learned of the Christmas customs in Spanish-speaking countries.

The French Club, under the direction of Mrs. Fargeix, an exchange teacher from France, has been learning the customs of France. They had a movie called "The Man In the Iron Mask" open to the school as their main project of the year.

The Latin Club, directed by Miss Heitzman, held a god and goddess party, where each member came dressed as a god or goddess. They joined the Spanish Club for their Christmas party, each club sharing their customs of the Christmas season with the other. The Latin Club visited the art museum, and Mr. Burns gave an interesting account of his trip to Europe. They ended their year by having a picnic.

The Student Council

The Student Council, with their advisors, Mr. Somers and Mr. Burns, were kept busy all year. Officers were President, Bill Hilty; Vice President, Ralph Norris; Secretary-Treasurer, Janis Hazenfield.

Their first big job was the homecoming. This was conducted with all the finery as in past years. A new project was introduced to the student body this year. After all home basketball games, dances were held in the gym. Music was provided by a juke box, which the Student Council bought. Another juke box was placed in the cafeteria, providing music during lunch.

Other jobs performed were the revising of the constitution and the cleaning of the trophies.

Athletic Director and Council

Vincent Arnold, Athletic Director

Fairmont's athletic department has an unnoticed helping hand who arranges all athletic contests, helps plan boys' intramural sports. He gets tickets for students to go to away games and helps to get ready for Fairmont contests. He also purchases equipment to make Fairmont one of the best equipped teams in the M.V.L., plus teaching a class in physical education. This man's job is a big one for a small man, Mr. Vincent Arnold.

The 1954 Football Season

FAIRMONT VS. FAIRVIEW

Fairmont's first game in the 1954 season was a victory, 13-6 as Fairmont started the season off with a bang.

FAIRMONT VS. MIDDLETOWN

This was the big game of the year. Fairmont fans had a big bonfire on the night before the game. On Friday night the two teams battled it out. Fairmont was behind at the half, but in the fourth quarter, Fairmont came out of the dark and won by scoring three touchdowns with 6 minutes to play, making the final score 24-21.

FAIRMONT VS. MIAMISBURG

The first game to open the Miami Valley League season was played under the lights at Fairmont stadium. Fairmont was ahead of the Vikings most of the game, but they came up on the last quarter to win by a score of 21-19.

FAIRMONT VS. TROY

Fairmont got back on their feet the next week. One of Fairmont's men intercepted a Troy pass and carried the ball 45 yards, which set us up for a touchdown, making the final score 20-7.

FAIRMONT VS. SIDNEY

Fairmont and Sidney battled on Sidney's gridiron, where Fairmont became the victor. We intercepted a pass and went for a touchdown. We also recovered several fumbles to help make the final score 38-7.

FAIRMONT VS. XENIA

Homecoming for F.H.S. was a sad night. Fairmont got off to a bad start by fumbling eight times during the game. Xenia won 26-7, but the colorful half-time features and dance after the game helped put spirit back in Fairmont students.

FAIRMONT VS. GREENVILLE

Fairmont met the undefeated Greenville on our gridiron for a hard fought battle. The first half neither team scored. But in the second half Greenville came out on top to win by a score of 19-7.

FAIRMONT VS. FAIRBORN

We traveled to Fairborn to play the newest team in the M. V. L. Fairborn won 12-7.

FAIRMONT VS. PIQUA

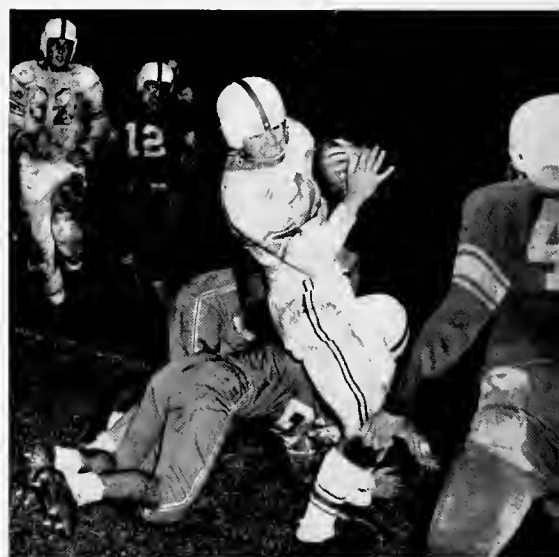

The last game of the season was a successful and happy game for all. The last game was a victory for Fairmont by a score of 32-7. Many of the seniors played for the last time on the gridiron.

Varsity

Norris gives words of encouragement to the starting line-up

Fairmont experienced their second season under the coaching of Leland Norris. The all junior team won six games and lost eleven. In the district tournament we drew Middletown for our first game and lost by a score of 55-33. Norris' men gained much knowledge about the game of basketball. Fairmont then closed their basketball season with a nice banquet and assembly in which the team members were awarded letters.

Once again under the able leadership of Ralph Fowler the Dragon diamondmen completed a successful season by sharing the M. V. L. title with Troy and Xenia. For the sixth season in succession the incomparable Mr. Fowler and his team either won or shared the title. Returning lettermen from the previous year's district champions provided the nucleus for Fowler's ball club. These included seniors Ron Andrews, John Jones, and Bill Coffey; and juniors Bob Oxley, Norman Roush, Bill Hilty, Kent Dadisman, and Jerry Mahler. Sophomores Steve Ellis, Dick Stephens, and Ted McClanahan also saw considerable action.

The Fairmont golf team of 1954 had a very successful and happy season under the coaching of Paul Wagner. At the end of their season they held numerous honors.

In the Tri-State Tournament, the team won sixth place and scored 331 points. Scoring 328 points awarded them first place in the Miami Valley League Meet. They also won first place in the district with 321 points. The team won the city and Miami Valley League Championships and finished eighth in the state.

Girls' Athletic

The Girls' Athletic Association this year was under new management, and a completely changed program was made. This new G.A.A. offers more opportunity to more girls.

The organization had monthly meetings, and in order to become a member six out of the eight meetings must have been attended. There was a Christmas party for the December meeting. One of the meetings was a huge slumberless party, held in the basement of Greenmont Church. The other meetings included an ice hockey game, a dance, the Ice Follies, and some movies. Also there was a mother and daughter banquet.

The intramural program offers quite a variety of activity. The sports include tennis, golf, volleyball, hockey, softball, swimming, bowling and basketball.

The girls take part in interscholastic sports and compete with schools in this area. These sports are hockey, tennis, softball, and basketball.

Varsity Hockey

Comprising our varsity team this year were Doris Rader, center forward; Helen Jones and her famous left hand lunge, center halfback; Dottie Colburn and Shirley Garrett, inners; Barb Mann and Jackie Wilson, fullbacks; Bev Brady, Terry Bard, and Nancy Kersey, wings; Janey Woodard and Bev Spiller, side halfbacks; and Sue Carroll, goalie. Shirley Garrett managed to score the most points with the help of the rest of the team.

Reserve Hockey

The reserve team this year was one of the best reserve teams Fairmont has ever had. They kept the varsity players on their toes, since all positions are open to the best players. Although some of them were sophomores, the team as a whole was well experienced. They certainly deserve more credit than they receive because they practiced hard and always kept up the team's spirit. The season was brought to a successful ending at the annual banquet in the school cafeteria where the girls received their letters.

Homecoming

For the homecoming festivities of 1954, each Hi-Y sponsored one of the five candidates. Delta Hi-Y supported Janis Hazenfield; Gamma Hi-Y, Pat Jollay; Kappa Hi-Y, Jeannie Schwieterman; Sigma Hi-Y, Dotty Colburn; and Theta Hi-Y, Manja Moore.

The week before the queen was announced during the half at the Fairmont-Xenia game, the halls of Fairmont were filled with colorful signs and campaign slogans of all kinds. Of the five candidates, vivacious, blonde-haired Dotty Colburn was chosen to reign over the Homecoming Dance of 1954.

Senior Dance

The "Toyland Fantasy" was chosen as the theme for the last dance presented by the Class of '55. On the evening of December 18, the cafeteria was filled with many colorful decorations consisting of the posts decorated like big red and white candy canes, teddy bears, dolls, and toy soldiers on the walls and everything else to get the guys and gals into the Christmas spirit.

To give out with the music for this pre-season social event, the "Rhythmairs" was chosen by the orchestra selection committee of the senior class.

The highlight of the evening was the surprise appearance of Santa Claus. This merry gentleman turned out to be Mr. Fowler, a former teacher at Fairmont High School. The night turned out to be one that will be long remembered.

Junior Dance

The "Cupid's Capers," the first event presented by the Junior Class this year, was held on February 19, in the cafeteria. Marshall Reed's orchestra played selections for this gay affair. The theme of "Cupid's Capers" was built around Valentines Day.

Sophomore Dance

The "Snowflake Twirl," the first big event of the new year, was presented by the Sophomore Class. This event, the first given by the Sophomore Class, as held on January 8, in the cafeteria. The music was provided by the jukebox. The decorations consisted of all sizes and shapes of snowflakes, little snowmen and blue and white streamers hanging from the wall to coincide with the winter season. During the intermission, Harold Wright played selections on the piano. The night was a complete success.

Senior Assembly

"Record Rhapsody"

The Senior Class Assembly was held on April 15. An old impresario, Mr. Champ, dreamed of the people he promoted in the world of show business as each person emerged from a giant record album and performed the act that made him successful. Always remembering his high school days, Mr. Champ dreams his old school-mates are standing before him giving their farewell assembly. At the close of the dream, Mr. Champ passes on, having recalled to memory his life inspired by his last high school days. President of the senior class, Bob Emery delivered a farewell speech. This assembly was the last presentation by the Class of '55. The seniors wish all of the future Fairmontonians good luck.

ROW 1: S. Ballou, N. Burns, G. Naylor, C. Andrews, G. Cole, S. Mish. . . . ROW 2: J. Mulvaney, P. Smales, B. Werner, B. Bruns, J. Hazenfield, L. Taylor, D. Neer. . . . ROW 3: B. Bass, W. Appleman, J. Reiniger, J. Lewis, B. Douglas, B. Emery, J. Wine.

The Senior Play

"Pygmalion," under the direction of Miss Leah Funck, was presented by the Senior Class on November 19 and 20.

Peggy Smales, Bill Bass, and cast of many gave excellent portrayals of the characters in "Pygmalion." Between the acts, Mania Moore, by her outstanding dancing, gave impressions of Eliza and her progress into society.

The Junior Play

On March twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth, the curtain opened on "Charley's Aunt," the world famous farce, which has moved millions of people to tears of laughter. Charley's Aunt couldn't come for the rendezvous the boys had arranged for their college sweethearts, so one of the underclassmen masqueraded as the aunt. The complications which developed were fun for everyone. The cast included John Goetcheus as Charley's Aunt, Lee Tussing, Karen Corsaw, and Patti Kinkade. Both nights of the play proved to be a rousing success for the whole audience.

Wanda Chynoweth, John Goetcheus, Bobbie Gillespie.

The Prom of 1954

The 1954 Prom given last spring for the graduating seniors took place under an oriental atmosphere. There was a "good luck" gate to walk under. A red bridge crossed over a pond which was covered with peonies. The array was separated by a fountain and a water falls in back of the bridge. Hanging from the ceiling could be seen Japanese lanterns. To add to this beauty there were real trees trimmed with cherry blossoms and ming trees of angel hair. The music of Karl Taylor sent the seniors on their way remembering their happy days at Fairmont.

As always, a popular couple of the graduating class was chosen to reign over the dance. With unanimous applause, Donna Walters and Dick Barr accepted their titles of Empress and Emperor to make the evening a complete success.

The staff of the 1955 DRAGON would like to express our sincere gratitude to Miss Jane McCallister who has spent a great deal of time and effort in making the DRAGON a book which will make you remember this year at Fairmont. We should like to thank the following people who have rendered many years of fine service to the annual staff. faculty, school office, Indianapolis Engraving Company, Powell Studios and the Graessle-Mercer Printing Company.

I hope you will have as much fun reading this book as we have had putting it together. I should like to take this chance to thank all those who have worked on the staff and helped make the DRAGON a memory book. I want to wish success to everyone in the future.

Diana Reed

Memories

SEPTEMBER

(7) Orientation, sponsored by Torch and Keystone, was attended by all new students. (8) F.H.S. halls were filled to overflowing and we are still seeing people we have never seen before.

(17) The football assembly took place in the stadium, where the football team, band and rhythmettes were introduced to the student body. All the pep must have inspired the team because Fairview returned home with a defeat.

(27) This was one of Fairmont's RED LETTER days in football. We made three touchdowns against Middletown in the last six minutes to win 24-21.

OCTOBER

(8) Beating Troy involved the first trip of the year for all. (11) This was the beginning of the senior picture taking. It continued for a week with the usual mix-up and worrying about looks.

(15) We were on the road again and brought a victory home from Sidney. (22) The homecoming game had a little damper on it because we lost to Xenia, but Dandy Dotty Colburn, sparkling little homecoming queen, helped liven things up. (23) The Miami Valley High School Journalism Associates Conference was held at F.H.S. (29) We put up a game fight against the eventual M.V.L. Champs, Greenville, but we lost 19-7. (30) The Senior Y-Teens held their first dance, which was a masquerade.

NOVEMBER

(1) Juniors traveled to town on Junior Career Day and the school seemed rather empty. (5) Our trip to Fairborn found the Flyers up for the game, which we lost 7-12. (11) School was out for the first time on Veterans' Day. (12) Fairmont was tied for fourth place in the M.V.L. after winning over the Piqua Indians 32-7.

(16) The football honor assembly was held and Mike Hall was announced as next year's captain. (19-20) The Senior play, "Pygmalion," was a great success, thanks to Miss Funck and the play cast. (24) The Turkey Trot was given by the Sigma Hi-Y. (25) Thanksgiving vacation began and everybody was full of turkey until Monday.

DECEMBER

(1) December began with every-pupil tests. (3) Fairmont opened its basketball year at the Coliseum with Wilbur Wright. The team was introduced in assembly. (1) Fairmont had its first at home game against Fairview. (11) We had our first court win at Kiser. (14) Fairmont made it two in a row by beating Franklin. (18) The senior dance, Toyland Fantasy, was a great success. (22) Basketball at Patterson. Christmas vacation starts. (28, 29) The basketball squad made its first all-night trip to Bellefontaine. In the tournament we played Bellefontaine and Urbana. During Christmas vacation the scholarship team took practice tests at school.

JANUARY

(3) School started and the student body had a chance to recuperate after vacation. (7) We played the first league basketball game at Miamisburg. (14) Troy came to the Dragon's den. (21) It was the end of the first semester and the seniors couldn't believe it. Sidney traveled to Fairmont. (22) Delta Hi-Y had its dance. (28) Fairmont played at Xenia. (29) The Senior Scholarship Test was given to forty-three seniors.

Of 1954-55

FEBRUARY

(4) Fairmont went to Greenville. (11) Fairborn, the new league team, came to Fairmont and was defeated. (12) The Fairmont Band held the first concert of its annual series at the junior high auditorium. (17) The Charles King assembly was as impressive this year as last year. (18) After their last league basketball game, the team finished third in the M.V.L. (19) The juniors held their dance, Cupid's Capers. It was a great success. (21, 22) We had a two-day vacation because of Washington's Birthday. (23) Fairmont played their last game at Roosevelt. (26) The G.A.A. held its first dance, Moonlight Mist.

MARCH

(4) The end of the fourth six weeks. (4, 5) The speech and debate team went to Ohio Wesleyan to try to qualify for the state speech meet. (6, 7, 8) The band traveled to Cleveland by bus and played at North Central Music Educators' Association Convention. After a tremendous job, they saw stage show, "Pajama Game." All in all everyone had a wonderful time. (8) The basketball squad had its honor assembly. Bobby Colburn was named honorary captain. Colburn and Ted McClanahan were elected to share co-captain honors next year. (12) Theta Hi-Y had a dance, Shamrock Swirl. (19) The District Music Contest was held here. (24) The senior class had try-outs for commencement speakers. (26-27) The juniors presented their production of "Charlie's Aunt," under the direction of Miss Funck. (28) The sophomores saw their class rings. (30, 31) Preliminary District Scholarship Tests were given.

APRIL

(1) The National Honor Society presented the tapping ceremony for new members. (2) Kappa Hi-Y gave a dance. (4) Some of the members of Junior Council left for the annual trip to Washington and New York. (6) Easter vacation starts! (12) Vacation seemed awfully short, but we are back again. (15) The seniors had their final assembly. It has left its mark! (16) The band had the second and last concert of its series. (23) The All-Sports Banquet was held. (28, 29, 30) The music department gave the operetta, "Carousel." (29) The band had its honor assembly.

MAY

(6) Miss Funck's speech classes put on a very entertaining assembly. (7) Miami District Scholarship Tests were given. (14) The seniors sat back and relaxed at the Junior-Senior Banquet. (18, 19, 20, 24, 25) Everybody realizes what a wonderful school Fairmont is and applauds the student body while attending the Honor Assemblies. (20) The seniors had lumps in their throats and the juniors thought about the things to come at the wonderful Junior-Senior Prom. (24) The seniors return textbooks and you heard the usual last day phrases, "I'll never miss Fairmont!" (25) But the next day they were here to see how things were going before leaving for the senior picnic. (26, 27) The lower classmen were left to two days of exams. (28) "What's done is done" and the seniors were seniors no more, but graduates. (June 3) School's out! But don't forget, September is just around the corner.

HOW WILL THE CLASS OF '55 BE REMEMBERED?

Every class leaves behind certain impressions that are remembered long after its members graduate from school.

It will be your ambition to see your class remembered as one of the best that ever represented your school.

The surest way to accomplish this is for each member to live up to the ideals taught you at Fairmont High School.

With youth, training, and the desire to serve, you are splendidly equipped for the larger responsibilities ahead.

We can only add our congratulations and sincerest wishes for your success.
